An aerial photograph of a city street at night, showing a massive grid of parked cars in a parking lot. The scene is illuminated by streetlights and the headlights of the vehicles. In the background, there are several multi-story buildings with lit windows.

7 Modes of Texxi

7 Modes of Texxi

A description of the seven operating modes typically operable within a Transit Exchange Deployment

Commuter

Taking customers from transit hubs to their homes or offices

Big Event

Transport solutions for large scale festivals and events, particularly where parking is limited

Big Event

The stadium would benefit from a share of the revenues accrued in transporting people to and from the events.

Big Event

Appropriate Policing could be financed by such an arrangement, eliminating the need to raise new taxes

Corporate

A photograph showing a group of approximately 20 people traveling on a coach bus at night. The passengers are seated in rows, looking towards the front of the vehicle. The interior of the bus is visible, with overhead luggage racks and large windows showing a blurred landscape outside.

Virtual Private Travel, enabling staff members, executives and their clients to make use of a luxury fleet of coaches to get to work

Corporate

Now even smaller start-up businesses could setup at business parks and offer their employees the kind of travel perks usually reserved only for corporate behemoths.

School Run

School-age children could now share direct transport to and from school in appropriate vehicles

Evening Economy

Restaurant patrons and restaurant businesses would benefit from cheaper travel

Evening Economy

Unaccompanied women would benefit from a scheme permitting them to travel safely alone

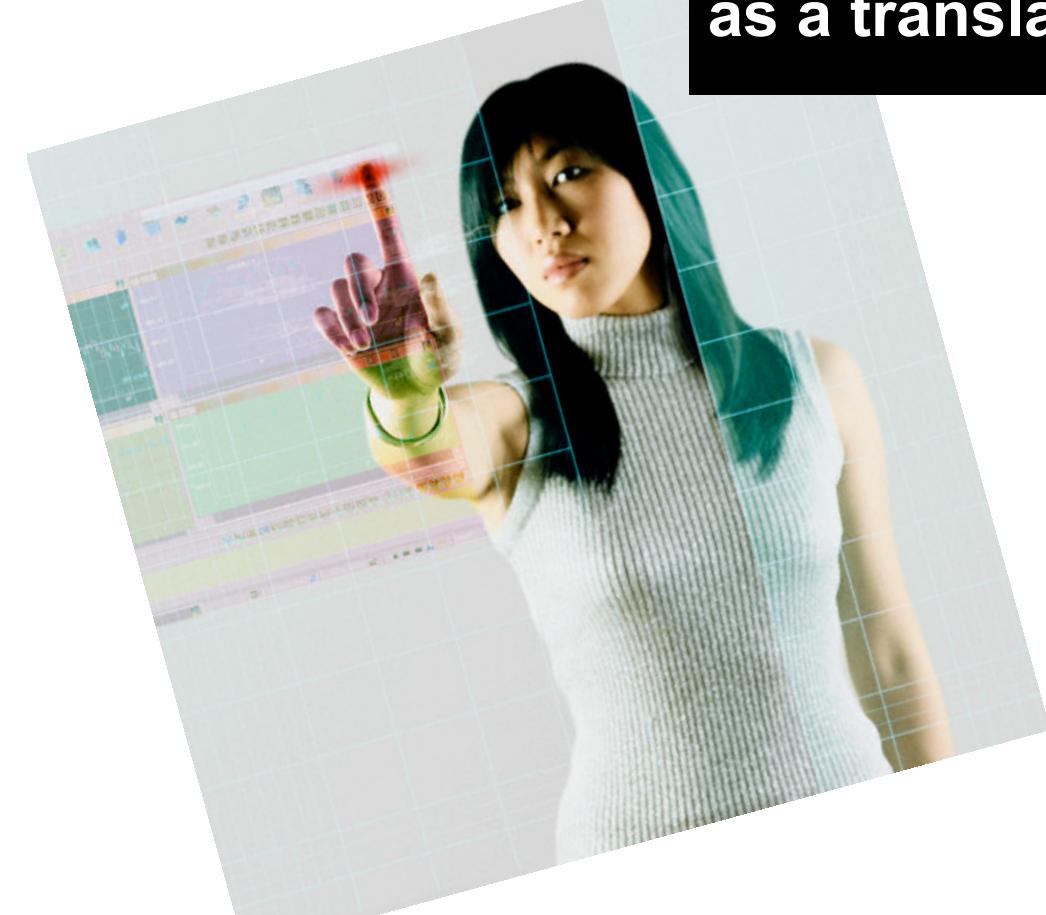

Tourist

Shared transit for tourists beyond fixed routes

Tourist

A way to hail vehicles independent of language and to request services such as a translator

Tourist

A means to allow tourists on visits to a city to easily visit relatively remote destinations while sharing revenue between the broker and the mode licence buyer (the cruise company)

Tourist

A better, cheaper and faster way to get tourists from the airports into the city centre

Shopping

on-the-fly, door-to-mall travel to and from supermarkets

Urban Logistics

A photograph of a man with short brown hair, wearing a light blue denim shirt, smiling at the camera. He is standing in front of a large industrial washing machine, which is covered in numerous white plastic bags containing laundry. To his right, there are several racks of clothes hanging on a drying line, with many white "Campus Laundry" tags attached. The background shows more laundry equipment and a window looking out onto a city street.
